Where can I make a report?

I want someone that will support me, but who isn't required to report it

Who can I talk to?

I want to talk to someone who will inform the Title IX Coordinator with or without further action by me

Confidential Employees

Confidential employees are not required by law to report Title IX incidents. Examples include UVA healthcare providers and some Women's Center employees, as well as administrative staff in these offices.

Responsible Employees

Responsible employees are required to report any incident of prohibited conduct. Examples include most UVA staff, RAs, and professors. However, professors aren't required to report when the incident is brought up in a class discussion or assignment.
