Supportive Measures are available all times to reported victims; whether or not they go forward with an investigation. These measures are also available at all times during the response process for Complainants and Respondents.

For all cases of sexual misconduct, including sexual misconduct that falls within the UVA Sexual Misconduct Policy, handled by the UVA Title IX Office (UVATIX).

Note: As a part of this initial assessment, UVATIX might reach out to the reported victim to reiterate the option for Supportive Measures and then explain the University response processes: informal alternative dispute resolution or the formal investigation process.

If the alleged behavior, taken as true, would not violate the Sexual Misconduct Policy, the case is closed.

In response to a report or a formal complaint of sexual misconduct, UVA can act to remove a respondent, or in certain circumstances, an individual performing work on an emergency basis, when it determines that the behavior implicates the University’s student or employee conduct or behavior.

In the event of such emergency removal, the respondent will be given notice and an opportunity to appeal this decision immediately following the removal (more info here for Misconduct Procedures). Appeals are handled by the Vice President of Student Affairs or their designee.

An individual may make a report to law enforcement at any time during this process, even if a University investigation is ongoing.

As a part of this initial assessment, UVATIX might reach out to the reported victim to reiterate the option for Supportive Measures and then explain the University response processes: informal alternative dispute resolution or the formal investigation process.

If the alleged behavior, taken as true, would not violate the Sexual Misconduct Policy, the case is closed.

A report may be made to law enforcement at any time during this process, even if a University investigation is ongoing.